

The International Cannabinoid Research Society 2015 Symposium will be held June 28-July 3, 2015 at Arcadia University in Wolfville, Nova Scotia.

The International Cannabinoid Research Society (ICRS) is a scientific association with more than 500 international members, all active researchers in the field of endogenous, plant-derived and synthetic cannabinoids, and related bioactive lipids. In addition to acting as a source for impartial information on Cannabis and the cannabinoids, the main role of the ICRS is to provide an open forum for researchers to meet and discuss their research. For more information about ICRS and the 2015 Symposium go to: <http://www.cannabinoidsociety.org>.
